

2619

3287

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia,
MELTING AND REFINING DEPARTMENT,

March 31, 1886.

Booth.

Melter and Refiner.

Encloses Copy of Com.
addressed to Hon. J.
P. Kimbalf, Director
- Relative to the 1880.12
Ounces S. Silver to be deposited by him.

No. of Enclosures, one

Philadelphia March 30 1886

James P. Kimball Esq.

Director of the Mint

My Dear Sir,

Respecting yours of the 19th. of March, I addressed a letter to the Hon. Daniel M. Fox Superintendant U.S. Mint, at Philadelphia of which the following is a copy.

Philadelphia March 26th. 1886

Hon. Daniel M. Fox

Suptdt U.S. Mint Philada.

My Dear Sir,

By reason of a letter of the date of March 19th. 1886 written to me by Hon. James P. Kimball, Director, from the Treasury Department, Bureau of the Mint, Washington, I have procured and deposited with you 1880.12 ounces of standard silver in accordance with the request contained in yours of February 25th. 1886, that you may be enabled to give Mr. Snowden the receipt required in said letter.

Please acknowledge this as I propose at once to apply to congress for relief

Yours Very Truly

James C. Boorh
M & R.

I have received acknowledgements in regard to this of which the following are copies.

MINT OF THE UNITED STATES AT PHILADELPHIA Pa.
Superintendants office.

March 26th. 1886

Jas^dC. Booth Esq
Melter & Refiner

Dr. Sir,

I acknowledge to have received your favor of 26th. inst. apprising me that you have procured and deposited with me 1980.12 oz. of standard silver in accordance with the request contained in my letter of 25th. ult. so that I might be enabled to give Mr Snowden late superintendant the receipt required in said letter.

Very resp'y

Danl. M. Fox

Superintendant

MINT OF THE UNITED STATES AT PHILADELPHIA
Melting and Refining Department.

Philadelphia March 26th. 1886

Received from James C. Booth, Melter and Refiner, Nineteen ^{thousand} and Eighty 12-100 standard ounces of Silver Bullion, valued at Nineteen hundred and thirty six 62-100 ($1936.62) Dollars, being the equivalent for three silver bars delivered to him Dec. 2nd. 1884, unaccounted for by said Jas. C. Booth at the annual settlement June 30th. 1885: said missing bars being numbered respectively as follows,

No. 7087	weighing	741.55	standard ounces
7093	" " "	770.40	" " " "
7113	" " "	468.17	" " " "
		1980.12

in final settlement of said Melter and Refiners account to June 30th. 1885, and for adjustment of my bullion accounts to same date as Supt. of the mint.

A. Loudon Snowden
Late Superintendent.

MINT OF THE UNITED STATES AT PHILADELPHIA.
Melting and Refining Department.

Philadelphia March 26th. 1886

Received from Daniel M. Fox, Superintendent of the mint Nineteen hundred and Eighty 12-100 standard ounces Silver Bullion, valued at Nineteen and thirty six 62-100 ($1936.62) Dollars being the equivalent of the three missing silver bars unaccounted for by me as Melter and Refiner at the Annual Settlement June 30th. 1885 returned by me to A. Loudon Snowden, late Superintendent and by him delivered to Daniel M. Fox Superintendent, now re-delivered to me for account of the United States as a re-delivery after settlement of my my silver bullion account June 20th. 1885

Jas. C. Booth
Melter and Refiner.

I now therefore request in accordance with yours of the 19th., that an appropriation of $1936.62 be asked of Congress through the measure known as the sundry civil appropriation bill or in any other manner affording me relief, which may suggest itself to the department.

Very Truly Yours,

Jas C Booth
M. & R.

[Abstract:] Encloses copy of com. addressed to Hon. J.P. Kimball...

Philadelphia
March 30, 1886

James P. Kimball Esq.
Director of the Mint

My Dear Sir,

Respecting yours of the 19th of March, I addressed a letter to the Hon. Daniel M. Fox Superintendent U.S. Mint, at Philadelphia of which the following is a copy.

Philadelphia
March 26, 1886

Hon. Daniel M. Fox
Suptdt. U.S. Mint Philada.

My Dear Sir,

By reason of a letter of the date of March 19th 1886 written to me by Hon. James P. Kimball, Director, from the Treasury Department, Bureau of the Mint, Washington, I have procured and deposited with you 1980.12 ounces of standard silver in accordance with the request contained in yours of February 25th, 1886, that you may be enabled to give Mr. Snowden the receipt required in said letter.

Please acknowledge this as I propose at once to apply to congress for relief.

Yours Very Truly,
James C. Booth
M & R

I have received acknowledgements in regard to this of which the following are copies.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 138

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia Pa.
Superintendent's Office.

March 26, 1886

Jas. C. Booth Esq.
Melter & Refiner

Dr. Sir,

I acknowledge to have receive your favor of 26th inst. apprising me that you have procured and deposited with me 1980.12 oz. of standard silver in accordance with the request contained in my letter of 25th ult. so that I might be enabled to give Mr. Snowden late superintendent the receipt required in said letter.

Very resp'y.
Danl. M. Fox
Superintendent

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia
Melting and Refining Department.

Philadelphia
March 26, 1886

Received from James C. Booth, Melter and Refiner, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty 12-100 standard ounces of Silver Bullion, valued at Nineteen hundred and thirty six 62-100 ($1936.62) Dollars, being the equivalent for three silver bars delivered to him Dec. 2nd 1884, unaccounted for by said Jas. C. Booth at the annual settlement June 30th, 1885: said missing bars being numbered respectively as follows,

No. 7087 weighing	741.55 standard ounces
7093 " " "	770.40 " " " "
7113 " " "	468.17 " " " "
	1980.12

In final settlement of said Melter and Refiners account to June 30th 1885, and for adjustment of my bullion accounts to same date as Supt. of the mint.

A. Loudon Snowden
Late Superintendent.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 138

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia.
Melting and Refining Department.

Philadelphia
March 26, 1886

Received from Daniel M. Fox, Superintendent of the mint Nineteen hundred and Eighty 12-100 standard ounces Silver Bullion, valued at Nineteen and thirty six 62-100 ($1936.62) Dollars being the equivalent of the three missing silver bars unaccounted for by me as Melter and Refiner at the Annual Settlement June 30th 1885 returned by me to A. Loudon Snowden, late Superintendent and by him delivered to Daniel M. Fox Superintendent, now re-delivered to me for account of the United States at a re-delivery after settlement of my silver bullion account June 20th, 1885.

Jas. C. Booth
Melter and Refiner.

I now therefore request in accordance with yours of the 19th, that an appropriation of $1936.62 be asked of Congress through the measure known as the sundry civil appropriation bill or in any other manner affording me relief, which may suggest itself to the department.

Very Truly Yours,
Jas. C. Booth
M & R